Program:
Specialization master in financial risk management (evening courses), option “Sustainable and Climate Finance”

Language:
English

Number of hours:
12 hours.

Number of students:
Around 30

Objectives of the course:
The purpose of this course is to provide students with a comprehensive overview of the concepts of corporate governance, while also focusing on the role corporate governance plays in setting the firms social goals. In particular, it should provide students with the needed competences to understand (among others):

- The theoretical motivation behind proper corporate governance (i.e. agency theory, stakeholder theory, …) and the extent to which proper corporate governance can create value and circumvent managerial issues through internal control mechanisms (using real-life cases).

- The institutional differences in corporate governance rules and codes of conduct among the largest economies, as well as the role of regulators.

- The role and influence of stakeholders on corporate governance and how improving social performance can engender value.

- The social megatrends and how it affects companies business models.

- The social key issues and governance factors to be investigated when performing the assessment of firm sustainability score.

Organization:
Hybrid teaching (mix of online and on site sessions) (in the evening on weekdays and/or on Saturdays) (also depending on the lecturer’s location)

Profile:
The candidate is expected
- to have a relevant academic expertise in the field of the course, such as: corporate governance, corporate finance, sustainability, or accounting and control. Professional experience in the field is an added advantage.
- to have demonstrable pedagogical skills oriented toward professionals (such as training or consultancy missions, or previous experience teaching evening classes).

As part of the contract for this course, the lecturer will also have to supervise a number of internships and final work projects relating to his/her area of expertise.

Contract length :
1 year (academic year 2022-2023) (renewable)

Contact person :
Anne CHANTEUX, Director of evening master programs, Head of the Finance, Accountancy and Law Department, anne.chanteux@uliege.be

Application :
Applications (1 or 2 pages CV, letter of motivation, course proposal including the course objectives, outline, methodology and evaluation criteria) are to be submitted by email to Christine Bertrand (christine.bertrand@uliege.be), Coordinator of evening master programs, by May 15, 2022 at the latest.

After reviewing the applications, the selected candidates will be invited to an interview on Wednesday, June 1, 2022 pm.