PRISME Postdoctoral Fellowship for international mobility

HEC Liège is hiring a postdoctoral position in one of its seven strategic research fields for conducting research abroad for a period of one year.

The postdoctoral researcher will work under the administrative responsibility of the Research Director and PRISME (Interdisciplinary research pole in economics and management sciences, i.e. the research council of HEC Liège and management board of the research unit).

The candidate will be funded to conduct research in a prestigious foreign institution of his/her choice.

Fellowship conditions:

- The successful candidate will present a clear publication strategy in line with the HEC Liège academic journal guide.
- The candidate will mention his/her affiliation to HEC Liège when conducting research at the foreign organization.
- The proposed foreign institution shall be prestigious in the selected research field.
- The successful candidate will deliver a one-day lecture to the PhD candidates of HEC Liège’s in the doctoral programme in economics and management.

Eligibility requirements

- You are a PhD alumni or you are in the last stages of your PhD programme at HEC Liège.
- The date of your PhD public defence is between 01/01/2018 and no later than 15/09/2020.
- You have been selected to conduct research in a prestigious foreign institution and you have received their formal acceptance to host you.
- You have found a supervisor at the selected foreign organization.
- HEC Research will consider the quality of the candidate. Previous research projects, research stays, as well as research partnerships and collaborations will be taken into consideration. Papers published in any of the journals listed in HEC Liège’s Academic Journal Guide (top quality publications) will be highly considered.
Contract:

1-year (paid) contract. The contract also includes a working budget of 9000 euros for covering the needs of the postdoc position. The postdoctoral researcher will have access to other institutional funding possibilities at the University of Liège. The start date of the position is in 2020. For further questions about the salary conditions please contact muriel.vervier@uliege.be

Application package:

(1) A detailed CV
(2) Research project: (a) a research project of maximum 10,000 characters (space included) with the following sections: A. Research question B. State of the art C. Research methodology D. Calendar and research outputs (b) together with a list of publications and working papers;
(3) Motivation letter;
(4) Letter of acceptance of the hosting organization, including the name and a support letter of your postdoctoral supervisor abroad.
(5) A scanned copy of your PhD degree or any official certificate (if already available) or a letter of your current PhD committee indicating your progress towards the public defence before September 2020 and the quality of your current research

Interested candidates should send their application to Muriel Vervier (Head of the Research Support Service) at muriel.vervier@uliege.be before January 5, 2020 or until the position is filled. Decisions will be communicated no later than March 2019. Further information can be obtained at the same address. The email header should clearly mention “PRISME Postdoctoral Fellowship for international mobility”