

HEC Liège invites applications for an applied project assistant in sustainable finance

The service of Financial Analysis and Corporate Finance led by Professor Marie Lambert at HEC Liège (University of Liège) is looking for an applied project assistant in sustainable finance.

Job description

- Work on applied research projects in sustainable finance in collaboration with different project partners;
- Collaborate with a dynamic research team (currently 6 persons) and organize the professional communication of research results (website, social networks, press, professional articles);
- Develop high-quality marketing material and organize research events in sustainable finance;
- Participate in the activities and academic life of the service of Financial Analysis and Corporate Finance.

Required qualifications and profile

- Hold a 120-credit master's degree in management sciences (or equivalent) (with at least honours);
- Demonstrate writing and analytical skills;
- Master communication tools and demonstrate infographic skills;
- Taste for research. Experience in applied research in finance and/or data analysis is considered as a plus;
- Strong interest in sustainable finance. Experience in sustainable finance is considered as a plus. Opportunity to enroll in an evening specialized master in sustainable and climate finance at HEC Liège.
- Languages : both English and French;

Contract

Initial term of 1 year. Start date of the contract to be discussed.

Composition of the application

- cover letter detailing the motivation for the position;
- curriculum vitae which demonstrates experience and/or expertise in project management and communication as well as interest in sustainable finance;
- references or recommendation letter(s)

Application deadline : August 1, 2022

Applications should be sent by e-mail to Mrs Marie LAMBERT, Professor of Finance & Vice Dean Research, marie.lambert@uliege.be Please indicate the reference to this call “applied project assistant in sustainable finance 2022” as object of your email.

You can also send her an e-mail for any further information.

The candidates selected after examination of the files will be invited to an interview at HEC Liège.

About HEC® Liège Management School of the University of Liège

HEC Liège is the Management School of the University of Liège (ULiège). The University is an active partner of a network of over 900 universities promoting the exchange of students, researchers, and skills. As one of its faculties, HEC Liège is one of the leading Belgian management schools hosting graduate and postgraduate study programmes. The School counts 110 full-time faculty members and researchers and about 3,500 students, and promotes an empowering pedagogy leading students to play a proactive part in their education.

HEC Liège's commitment to and ongoing investment in quality improvement has been recognized through the international Accreditations AACSB and EQUIS (delivered by EFMD).

HEC Liège offers a dynamic and entrepreneurial research and teaching environment. Each professor conducts his or her research programme independently. Numerous sources of funding (internal and external) exist and give (assistant) professors the opportunity to create their own research team and to supervise doctoral students as soon as they join HEC Liège. Each professor is also responsible for the content and methodology of his or her teaching. The time allocation between the various activities is 40% for research, 40% for teaching, and 20% for community outreach. In the early years of the appointment, the time allocated to community service is limited, which gives the professor the opportunity to further develop his or her research and teaching programme.

HEC Liège emphasizes the human dimension of its work environment, the regional anchoring of its community service missions, the managerial relevance of its teaching and its applied research projects, let alone its fruitful inter-faculty partnerships.

HEC Liège upholds respect, tolerance, congeniality, diversity, and social responsibility. It is committed to the well-being of its members and to environmental protection.

Last but not least, HEC Liège's modern and expanding campus within a city renowned for its friendliness and hospitality makes it a great place to live and work.

A description of the HEC® Liège work environment can be found at <http://hec.uliege.be/en/hec-liege/hec-liege-is-hiring>.