

HEC Liège is looking for a full time research and teaching assistant in Finance

The department of Finance and Law at HEC Liège (Université de Liège) is hiring a full time research and teaching assistant in Finance.

Job description:

- The successful candidate will work on research projects in Sustainable Finance
- The successful candidate will attend the doctoral program in Economics and Management offered by HEC Liège and they will prepare a doctoral thesis in the field of finance (PhD in management).
- The successful candidate will also have teaching duties related to Market Finance, International Finance as well as Sustainable Finance. The duties include administrative work related to the organization of the courses, practical sessions, assignments, and exams.
- The successful candidate will ensure the supervision of students for internships and final thesis.
- The successful candidate will contribute to tasks for the benefit of the Department and the School (i.e., exam supervision)
- The successful candidate will participate to the activities of the department and the school (research seminars, meetings, activities for the development and promotion of the school)

Your profile:

- You have a master's degree in Economics, Management Science, Business Engineering (or equivalent) with at least a grade of distinction (i.e., cum laude). Note that you must have graduated your Master by the time you start the position.
- You are passionate about research and teaching, and you want to engage in a doctoral project.
- You have a strong quantitative background, and you have experience with programming languages such R and MatLab.
- You have a strong interest in the fields of Sustainable Finance and Asset Pricing
- You have a critical mindset, and good organizational skills. You are proactive and a team player.
- Languages: Very good English written/spoken communication skills. Knowledge of French is an asset.

Contract: The research and teaching assistant will be offered a full time 2 years contract, renewable upon a positive evaluation. The contract will start on September 15, 2022.

Application package:

- Motivation letter and curriculum vitae demonstrating the interest of the candidate for research in Finance and especially in Sustainable Finance and Asset Pricing as well as their teaching experience (such as student instructor, ...)
- Master course grades and copy of degrees;
- A copy of your master thesis (or an abstract if in progress)
- 1 recommendation letter to be sent directly by the person recommending you.

Interested candidates should send their application material (a single compressed folder containing all files) by email to Dr. Caterina Santi (caterina.santi@uliege.be), Assistant Professor in Finance, with Anne Chanteux (anne.chanteux@uliege.be), President of the UER in Finance, Accounting and Law, in cc. For further information on the position, you can contact Dr. Santi.

Applications should be received by August 10th, 2022 at the latest.

Candidates selected after examination of the application package will be invited for an interview during the second half of August 2022.

About HEC Liège

HEC Liège is the management school of the University of Liège. HEC Liège is one of the leading Belgian university business schools for graduate and postgraduate programs with more than 115 fulltime faculty members and researchers and more than 3000 students.

HEC Liège is a dynamic institution that heavily promotes an active pedagogy, leading students to contribute actively to their own education.

The international vision of HEC Liège translates into multiple research activities in management and economics, numerous partnerships with worldwide companies and universities, and growing internationalization of its programs and faculty.

The school's commitment to, and continuing investment in, quality improvement has been recognized through the AACSB award and the EQUIS award delivered by the international accreditation body EFMD.

HEC Liège also holds the EPAS award for each of its three main programs: the Master in Management, the Master in Business Engineering, and the Doctoral Program. The specialization "Banking and Asset Management" of the Master in Management has recently been accepted into the CFA Institute University Recognition Program. HEC Liège is also a member of the Conférence des Grandes Ecoles.

HEC Liège is located in Liège, Belgium's third largest city, and the largest agglomeration of the French speaking Walloon region. At the heart of Europe, Liège is the third inland port of Europe and the seventh freight airport in Europe. Recognized for its quality of life and its rich historical heritage, Liège is ideally situated within the Meuse-Rhin Euregio, 30 km from Maastricht (the Netherlands) and 60 km from Aachen (Germany). It is less than 1.5 hours away from Cologne, 2.5 hours from Paris and 4 hours from London by high-speed train (TGV) starting from the new magnificent train station designed by the renowned architect Santiago Calatrava.

A description of the HEC Liège work environment can be found at: <http://www.hec.ulg.ac.be/en/hecliege/strengths-of-hec-liege>