HEC Liège offers a position as a research and teaching assistant (PhD student) in economics (F/M)

The Department of Economics at HEC® Liège (Management school of the University of Liège, Belgium) is searching for a research and teaching assistant (PhD student) to strengthen its team in applied micro-economics. Aside from teaching duties for advanced applied economics classes, the successful applicant is expected to write a PhD thesis on a topic related to be defined.

WHAT DO WE OFFER?
- A full-time position, up to 6 years (two-year renewable contracts after receiving positive evaluations). The salary will be set according to the doctoral student salary scale of the University of Liège (i.e. approximately 2,000 € net per month).
- A starting date on 1 October 2023, open to discussion.
- A stimulating and flexible research environment, as a member of the research unit Economic Analysis and Policy (EAP).
- A doctoral training program in collaboration the Graduate School in Economics (all French-speaking universities in Belgium plus the KU Leuven).

WHAT DO WE EXPECT FROM YOU?
- Conducting a research project, with the aim to write a PhD thesis in the field of economics.
- Successfully attending the doctoral training program.
- Being in charge of practical sessions for applied economics classes.

YOUR PROFILE
- You have (or are close to completion) of a Master’s degree in economics, econometrics, applied statistics/mathematics.
- You have an interest in applied economics.
- You have a keen interest in econometrics, and quantitative methods used in Economics.
- You have some knowledge of Stata, R or python (or another program), and the willingness to extend it.
- You are fluent in English and French.
- You are persistent, work independently and have good communication skills.
APPLICATION PACKAGE

- Cover letter showing your motivation and eligibility for the position, including a brief description of your research interests.
- CV showing your past experiences, your relevant expertise for the position and contacts of two references.
- A copy of your undergraduate and postgraduate degrees.

Interested candidates should send their application by email to Prof. Axel GAUTIER (agautier@uliege.be) on 9th July at the latest. The interviews will be conducted online during the last week of July. Further information can be obtained by sending an email to Prof. Axel Gautier. HEC® Liège is an equal opportunity employer favoring an inclusive and friendly academic culture. We particularly encourage women to apply.

A thorough description of the management school and its work environment can be found here. More information regarding the research unit Economics analysis and Policy (EAP) can be found at here.

ABOUT HEC LIEGE
HEC® Liège is the management school of the University of Liège. HEC® Liège is one of the leading Belgian university business schools for graduate and postgraduate programs with more than 115 full-time faculty members and researchers and more than 2500 students. The international vision of HEC® Liège translates into multiple research activities in management and economics, numerous partnerships with worldwide companies and universities, and growing internationalization of its programs and faculty.

The school’s commitment to, and continuing investment in, quality improvement has been recognized through prestigious international accreditations: HEC® Liège has become the 1st complete Belgian business school hold both AACSB and EQUIS institutional accreditations.

HEC® Liège is located in Liège, Belgium’s third largest city, and the largest agglomeration of the French-speaking Walloon region. At the heart of Europe, Liège is the third inland port of Europe and the seventh freight airport in Europe. Recognized for its quality of life and its rich historical heritage, Liège is ideally situated within the Meuse-Rhin Euregio, 30 km from Maastricht (the Netherlands) and 60 km from Aachen (Germany). It is less than 1.5 hours away from Cologne, 1.5 hours from Paris and 3 hours from London by high-speed train (TGV).